INTIMACY

Photographer: Marius Ciobanu @marius.vision
Model: Tess @tessa__bae

I grew up in the '90. Many of these experiences, movies, and series influenced me in the way, I create my photographs.
My name is Marius Ciobanu and by definition, I'm a photographer based in France. But I've got the mind of a scientist, the heart of the poet, and a camera to capture it all. When then lights go out, what really matters? People, relationships, and our interconnected humanity.

BOUDOIR

INSPIRATION

My work is made about dreams, beauty, surrealism, mystery and the idea of break-up stories and people. I'm interested In every image that tells something, that lets you the possibility of imagine, that generates stories and opinions.

I enjoy taking pictures of my surroundings. I find inspiration everywhere – but mostly in life and people. Sometimes there are perfect matches between light and subject. I am very picky when choosing models, and I know I have chosen well if I am touched by their emotions.
